

FOR RELEASE

February 9, 2010

School district phone system restored

All phones have been restored in the Elmira City School District as of 5:52 a.m. Tuesday, February 9. The entire district phone system, effecting all 13 schools, District Administration, the bus garage and other school buildings, were down yesterday due to a problem with Verizon, the service provider.

District technology personnel were able to restore phone service with a backup system early this morning.
