Elmira City School District Board selects Hochreiter as superintendent

The Elmira City School District Board of Education offered Joseph E. Hochreiter the position of Superintendent of Schools effective July 1, 2009, and Hochreiter accepted the offer.

Joseph E. Hochreiter was hired by the ECSD in April 2006 to serve as Deputy Superintendent. In March 2009, he was named Acting Superintendent when Dr. Raymond Bryant announced his resignation.

“We’re pleased to offer this position to Mr. Hochreiter,” said Larry McGovern, the newly-elected president of the Board. “He’s demonstrated outstanding leadership and has worked well with the Board since he was named Acting Superintendent. The Board plans to have a contract finalized in August so we can begin school in September with Joe as our full-time Superintendent.”

MEDIA ALERT: Board President Larry McGovern and Mr. Hochreiter will be available for comment around 4:45 p.m. today, Friday, at the Elmira district’s boardroom, 951 Hoffman Street, Elmira.
