Several high school and middle school students in the Elmira City School district received awards from the Cosmopolitan Women's Club last month at Elmira College's Hamilton Hall.

Five students from EFA, four students from Broadway Middle School and nineteen students from Ernie Davis Middle School were honored for their academic and/or enrichment improvement.

Scholarship recipients must maintain an 80 or above average, must be African-American and must demonstrate financial need. Eleven high-school students in Chemung and Steuben counties received $3,500 in scholarships. Middle school students, chosen by their guidance counselors and/or teachers, received a $25 savings bond, which upon maturity, will be valued at $50.
