Board approves Hochreiter's contract

At a special Elmira City School District board meeting on September 8, the Board formally approved the three-year contract for Joseph Hochreiter as Superintendent of Schools.

"I'm excited to begin this phase of my career with the Elmira City School District and community, Hochreiter said. "We should be proud of many great accomplishments in recent years and I look forward to a healthy career continuing our growth and engaging the community."

Joseph Hochreiter was hired by the district in 2006 to serve as Deputy Superintendent. In March 2009, he was named Acting Superintendent when Dr. Raymond Bryant announced his resignation.

We are happy to announce that the Board has reached a contract with Joe Hochreiter, the new Superintendent of the Elmira City School District. We hope that the relationship we have built continues into the future," said Board president Larry McGovern.

The contract is posted on the district website at www.elmiracityschools.com > School Board.
