

FOR RELEASE

October 14, 2009

Students will be released early Friday

The Elmira City School District will conduct its annual early dismissal drill on Friday, October 16.

All students will be released 15 minutes earlier than normal dismissal time. Students participating in after-school sports or other extracurricular activities will be required to board their bus at the time of the early dismissal; they then will be released back to school for their after-school activities.
